SAVE-THE-DATES

Save-the-Dates are meant to give your guests a friendly heads up. They aren't necessary but can be a nice touch, especially for friends and family who have to travel. They may turn the trip into a small getaway so these can be sent up to a year in advance.

Local: 6 - 8 months
Destination: 8 - 12 months

INVITATIONS

There is such a thing as too early for invitations, especially if you are not sending a save-the-date. You don't want guests excitement to fade because they got the invite a year ago.

Local: 6 - 8 weeks
Destination: 3 - 4 months

RSVP DEADLINE

This may simply come down to the needs of your vendors. The first one to consider is your caterer, for the meal count. Check with each vendor to determine when they need the final head count and make the deadline date a week before that.

Local: 2 - 3 weeks
Destination: 3 - 5 weeks

THANK YOU CARDS

Family and friends who are unable to attend might send a gift early. Start sending out thank yous as soon as you receive gifts to minimize your workload after the wedding. Try to send the remainders no later than 4 weeks after the wedding.

Local: Immediately
Destination: Immediately

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

01. WHEN SHOULD I CONTACT YOU TO GET STARTED?
As soon as possible. We will need time to plan, design, print, assemble, and ship your stationery.

02. HOW MUCH WILL MY STATIONERY COST?
This will depend on what you're looking for and how many you'll need to order. The average LMDP couple spends approximately $900 - $1,700 on save the dates and invitations. This totals about 6-7% of the wedding budget.

03. WHAT IF MY BUDGET IS UNDER THE AVERAGE COST?
Not a problem! The great thing about custom stationery is we can do as much or as little as your budget will allow. I will use my expertise to suggest the best options for your budget.

04. WHAT IF I DON'T KNOW WHAT I WANT?
Also, not a problem! I have tons of examples you can look at. Pinterest is also a great source for inspiration. I have a board you can view here:

www.pinterest.com/lmdesignandphotography/wedding-invitation-inspiration

TIPS & TRICKS

01. Don't buy your stamps until after you receive your invitations. Each custom suite will very in weight and you might need a 20z stamp instead of the standard 1oz.

02. Make your guest list early. The earlier the better actually. If budget is important to you, you don't want to be guessing how much everything is going to cost. If you guess you'll need 50 invitations and then make your guest list to find out you really need 95 your initial quote will be very inaccurate.

03. If you are looking for a specific design type, say so. I have no problem creating a design from scratch but if you've already fallen in love with a certain design let me know and send an example. Or 10. While I cannot copy the same exact design, I can make something with the same look and feel that is all your own.

03. Custom isn't cheap. While we can choose cheaper print options for your suite to help with costs, some things like wax seals, specialty print options, and custom drawn illustrations will cost you. Be sure to do your research, get quotes, and set a realistic budget if you choose the custom route.

SIGNS & FAVORS

SIGNS

Signs are available in multiple different mediums but I have to say acrylic is my favorite. They can be printed in full color or in all white. They are actually UV printed, not hand drawn. That means we can carry your pretty stationery fonts all the way through to your decor and reception. They are available in 5” x 7”, 4” x 9”, 6.25” x 6.25”, or 8” x 10” for invitations, decor, and day of items and either 18” x 24” or 24” x 36” for welcome signs.

WEDDING FAVORS

CHARITY CARDS:
- Charity cards are designed give your guests a different kind of favor. Make a charitable donation to your favorite charities on your guests behalf.

CAN COOLERS:
- With over 30 colors to choose from can coolers are completely customized and personalized to coordinate with your invitations and day of pieces.

MY PROCESS

01. LET'S BE FRIENDS
My goal as a designer and photographer is to capture love in its entirety. To watch your family start and grow. We'll start off by scheduling a Starbucks date (I'd say coffee but I don't actually like coffee) either in person or over the phone to get to know each other better. If we're meeting in person you'll be able to view stationery and color examples.

02. SAVE YOUR DATE
Next we'll get your date booked. I'll email over your invoice and contract for you to review, sign, and pay your $100 retainer. Congratulations, you are now an LM Bride or Groom!

03. TIMELINE CREATION
Based of your wedding date and needs I'll create a detailed timeline that will provide all the dates we'll be viewing, approving, printing, and mailing your stationery items. We'll work on your save-the-date to get those sent out, then your invitations, then your favors and day of items.

05. THE FUN PART
Once your timeline is created you'll know exactly when you design proofs will be emailed over to you. You'll be able to make any changes up until we send your items to print. Once everything is printed and delivered, you are free to mail them out. Day of items are last and will be printed about a month before your wedding day.

06. WEDDING DAY
The big day is here! It's time to get glammed up and marry the love of your life! Sit back, relax and soak it all in.
